PRIVACY NOTICE

Who we are and what we do?

As a registered Data Controller, we, the Manx Competitive Music, Speech and Dance Festival is a Company (Registration Number 127818C) and Charity (number 1127) with the following charitable purposes:

- 1) To foster, develop and promote in the Isle of Man the performing arts of music, dance and speech in all its forms
- 2) To provide competitions for the performance of music, dance and speech in all its forms and to hold or support amateur festivals of such performing arts.

Data Protection Principles.

The Charity is committed to processing data in accordance with its responsibilities under the General Data Protection Regulations:

1. Lawfulness, fairness and transparency
2. Purpose limitation
3. Data minimisation
4. Accuracy
5. Storage limitation
6. Integrity and confidentiality

Together with the overarching principle of 'accountability' which requires a controller to demonstrate compliance with the personal data processing principles. This includes the implementation of appropriate data protection policies under the responsibility of the controller set out in Article 24 of the Applied GDPR.

For further details on these principles go to the Office of the Information Commissioner www.inforights.im/organisations/data-protection-law-2018/principles-of-data-protection/

What do we do with your data?

The data we collect from you and our partners will be used exclusively in connection with our charitable purposes.

We collect the contact details of stewards, Company Members, employees, entrants, subscribers, trophy winners, teachers, accompanists, sponsors, partners and advertisers. In addition we collect the bank details of those to whom we make payments. We retain this information for only as long as required to achieve the Festival's purposes.

The names of competitors will be included in the Festival's Official Programme which is on public sale. No contact details or dates of birth will be included there although competitors entered in classes for specific age groups will be identifiable as of that age group.

The data collected will not be shared with third parties without the express permission of the data subject. When the Festival is asked to provide contact details to any third party, (for example, with a view to asking a competitor to perform at an event), the Secretary will contact the competitor to ensure their consent to contact details being disclosed.

This Privacy Notice will be drawn to the attention of all entrants, stewards, accompanists, partners, adjudicators, teachers, subscribers and Company Members and will be on our web site.

Our Privacy Policy has been developed in line with the Isle of Man Data Protection Act 2018. International entries will be treated under Manx law.

Your rights

If you are concerned about the way your personal data are being collected, retained or used, you have the right to have it deleted if you wish. If you wish to know what data we have about you then you should contact the Festival Secretary on manxguild@gmail.com who will acknowledge receipt and provide all the relevant data within one month of receipt of the request.

Breach Policy

If there is accidental or unlawful restriction, loss, alteration or unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data held by us it will be investigated by the Vice Chairman and Treasurer. It will be reported where appropriate to the Information Commissioner and, in where appropriate and legal, to the individuals concerned.

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

implemented from 1 January 2017

FULL NAME OF ORGANISATION: MANX COMPETITIVE MUSIC SPEECH AND DANCE FESTIVAL

Where the word "child" or "children" is used throughout this document, it also includes vulnerable adults. Where "parent" is used it includes guardians and carers.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT: The safety of children and vulnerable adults is paramount and all, without exception, have the right to protection from abuse. All suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately and all officers, committee members and volunteers have a responsibility to report concerns.

1. PURPOSE AND FUNCTION OF ORGANISATION:

To promote participation and excellence in the amateur performance of music, spoken word and dance by means of competition.

2. THE FESTIVAL ENVIRONMENT:

The principal venue for the festival, where all children's classes are held, is the Villa Marina, Douglas, Isle of Man, which remains in part open to the general public during the festival. The festival is run by volunteers who aim to communicate and co-operate with parents and teachers to ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the festival provides a safe environment for children.

3. TO WHOM DOES THIS POLICY APPLY:

This policy relates to children under the age of 18 years and those vulnerable adults of any age who are identified to the organisers prior to their arrival at the festival. This should be done by contacting the address or telephone number at the foot of this document. In recognising the needs of children from all ethnic groups and children who are disabled, the festival actively seeks to meet needs notified to the festival by parents / guardians / carers and/or teachers.

4. FESTIVAL PERSONNEL:

The festival is run by officers and committee members who are elected at the Annual General Meeting. They are helped during the week of the festival by additional stewards, selected by personal recommendation and interview. Details of all personnel are held by the Secretary. They can be identified at the festival by name badges, and anyone wearing a badge can be approached in case of a problem and will be able to take you to someone who will be able to help. In addition, whilst classes are taking place, officers will be available in the Festival Office. All problems will be taken seriously, documented and dated in accordance with festival procedures.

COMPETITORS TO RETAIN THIS SECTION

5. PREPARATION FOR ATTENDANCE AT THE FESTIVAL:
It is the policy of the festival that all parents receive a copy of this Policy in time to make their arrangements to attend the festival. You will have received this Policy either directly from the Secretary or via your teacher, whose responsibility it is to ensure that all parents receive a copy. Further copies are available at the ticket office or festival office.

Neither the officers and festival committee, nor individual stewards are responsible for supervising children. Parents must ensure that each child is supervised at the festival by a responsible adult. Competitors under 18 years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult when attending a run through with an official accompanist.

6. PERFORMANCE AREAS:
 In all performance areas, children approach the stage from the front, in sight of the audience.

7. DRESSING ROOMS
 The Festival Organisers provide separate girls' and boys' dressing rooms during the Festival. Dressing rooms will be supervised by teachers, parents, guardians, carers and chaperones appointed by the schools, or by parents in the case of private entries. Admission to the dressing rooms will be strictly limited; female chaperones only will be admitted to the girls' changing room but mothers may enter the boys' dressing room. The Festival will not accept any responsibility whatsoever for supervising toilet and communal facilities. Changing areas, warm up areas and toilets are not supervised and children should not be allowed to stray into areas designated as out of bounds. Teachers/parents/guardians/carers should be aware that backstage changing facilities for contestants are limited.

8. PHOTOGRAPHS, VIDEOTAPES and PRESS PHOTOGRAPHY
 Recording and photography of any type are prohibited in the competition rooms. A press photographer may on occasion photograph competitors, and it is the responsibility of the supervising adult to ensure that parents' wishes are complied with as to whether this is allowed.

9. THE LEGISLATION AND GUIDANCE THAT SUPPORTS THIS POLICY:
 The Children and Young Persons Act 2001; the Data Protection Act 2002; the European Convention of Human Rights; the Criminal Justice Act 2001; the Copyright Act 1991.

POLICY REVIEW
 The organisers will constantly review their policy revising and enhancing it as necessary. In doing this they will look to The British & International Federation of Festivals for support and good practice, and also to other agencies such as the Isle of Man Children's Centre.

Notes on Entry Form Completion

- This form may be used for different competitors as well as for different classes.
- It is the competitor's responsibility to check that their entry conforms with the requirements laid down in the Syllabus.
- Please work across the page filling in all the columns that are relevant to the class for which you are making an entry. Details of all the classes are contained in the syllabus. Unless EVERY ITEM IS COMPLETED, THE ENTRY WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
- Each competitor's forename and surname (not just initials) are required for the programme. Date of birth is necessary for all competitors.
- With a group, orchestra or choir we assume that the person making the entry will check that all performers fulfil any entry requirements. The name of the group, orchestra or choir is required along with the number of performers.
- Details of own choice pieces must be clearly written with composer or writer and title, (and if applicable: name of work from which it is taken; movement; opera; show; book; character). The programme is produced from these details.
- N.B. Any own choice music required by the accompanist must be submitted with this entry form or the entry will not be accepted. It must be clearly marked with the competitor's name, class and page number.
- If an official accompanist is requested, the copy for the accompanist must be included with the entry form otherwise this service will not be available. These copies must be marked clearly with the competitor's name, class and page number.
- Please state on the form if you are to play or sing an unaccompanied piece.
